

Consumer Bankruptcy Training

Sponsored by Neighborhood Legal Services, Inc.

Neighborhood Legal Services, Inc. (NLS) is offering a seminar on Consumer Bankruptcy Practice. The seminar is FREE as are all materials provided, including Bankruptcy Basics, published by National Consumer Law Center, contingent upon a participant's agreement to accept two pro bono Chapter 7 Bankruptcy cases from NLS within one calendar year of the seminar. Alternatively, the pro bono case handling requirement may be waived by a tuition payment of $200.00. The seminar will be held at the Holiday Inn, 1 Newbury Street, Peabody, MA 01960, Massachusetts on:

Wednesday, May 26th, 2010, from 4:00pm to 7:00pm

Topics covered will include: A view from the bench; whether to file for bankruptcy on behalf of a client; selecting the appropriate chapter for your case; foreclosure prevention; duties of debtor's counsel; and working with the trustee.

Scheduled panelists are:

The Honorable Joan N. Feeney, U.S. Bankruptcy Judge, District of Massachusetts
Kathleen P. Dwyer, Trustee, U.S. Bankruptcy Court, District of Massachusetts
John Rao, Esq., National Consumer Law Center
David McLoon, Esq., Ipswich
Michael C. Raabe, Senior Attorney, Neighborhood Legal Services, Inc., Lawrence
